WELCOME TO WORSHIP

Like any gathering place, a church has a personality. Our historic building and beautiful sanctuary embody the spirit of tradition, yet our Sunday morning worship services are frequently punctuated by laughter. We are a proud member of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and have been designated a Matthew 25 church with two foci: eradicating systemic poverty and dismantling structural racism. We have plentiful fellowship opportunities, classes for all ages, and outreach opportunities in which to participate. You can also find space here to recharge, linger in the depth of message and music, and connect with others who readily accept you and rejoice in varied opportunities to be the church together. There is a kind of space here into which all are invited to be themselves and to feel at home. Participate to the degree you feel comfortable.

Here is some information to help make you feel at home:

- An elevator is located outside the door on the lectern (right) side of the sanctuary.
- WIFI - Router Name: APC Wifi Password: apcSpirit
- Accessible restrooms are outside the door on the lectern (right) side, the main level below that (go left), and the lower level. Baby changing stations are available in the sanctuary level and lower level restrooms.
- Childcare is available upstairs in the nursery from 9:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. every Sunday.
- Activity Bags for children are located on the pew in the back of the sanctuary.
- During the offering, we take a collection of goods for Eastern Area Community Ministries (EACM). Each month's most needed goods are printed under the offering section.
- A first aid kit and Automatic External Defibrillator (AED) are located outside the lectern side (right) doors on the left up on the upper shelf. (Look for the sign)
